

100 Haiku: Inspired by the Mind Training of A Course In Miracles

This wonderful little book was totally inspired by jeweled passages from the modern-day masterpiece, A Course in Miracles. It offers a unique blend of the classic Japanese poetic form, the Haiku, three lines composed of seventeen syllables in the pattern of 5-7-5, and masterful photographs from the collection of Theo OConnor and Leda Robertson. Each of their photographs enhances the meaning of a Haiku, and each Haiku brings out the essence of the photograph. This book offers a gentle, simple introduction to A Course in Miracles for those unfamiliar with it, and provides a loving reminder of its timeless treasures for those who are. Reading this book will be an illuminating experience.
