

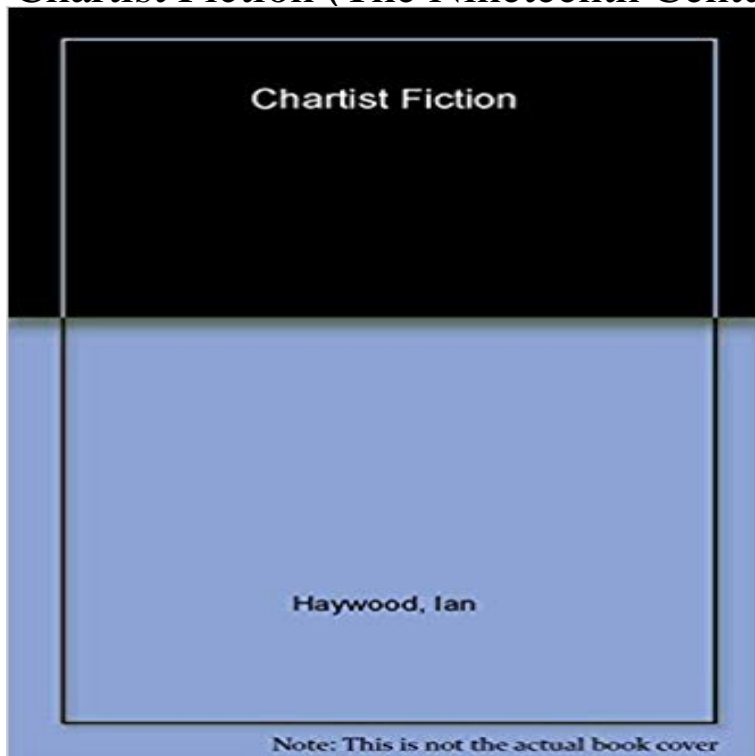

Chartist Fiction (The Nineteenth Century Series)

This text reprints two major radical narratives which first appeared in Chartist newspapers. Thomas Doubledays work combines Utopian politics with Bunyanesque satire to tell the story of the journey of Radical and his family from the City of Plunder to the City of Reform. Wheelers Sunshine and Shadow is the only serialized novel to have been published in the Northern Star. It combines fictional biography with historical chronicle to form the first truly working-class novel. Both texts offer an insight into the literary achievements of the Chartist movement. Each is fully annotated and the editor provides an introduction to each story and a bibliography of recent scholarship.
