

HOOT N HOLLER

Hilarious and wildly offbeat, HOOT N HOLLER is a rousing romp through the adventures of two appealing and feisty women who refuse to take retirement sitting down and become professional truck drivers. In 2009, HOOT N HOLLER won the Truck Writers of North America Bronze Communication Award for book of fiction. Tom Claffey interviewed numerous truckers (men and women) while developing the story of Sally Tremaine and Dixie ODonnell (aka Hoot N Holler). In addition to spending time in a rig, he visited truck stops across the United States, including the famed Iowa 80 Truckstop. Tom lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico.
