

Magnus Merriman (Canongate Classics)

This hilarious novel charts the rise and fall (and perhaps the rise again) of Magnus Merriman would-be lover, writer, politician, idealist, and crofter moved by dreams of greatness and a talent for farcical defeat. Convinced that small nations are safer to live in than big ones, Magnus becomes a Nationalist candidate for the parliamentary seat of Kinluce. With details based on Linklater's own experiences in an East Fife by-election in 1933, the way is set for a satirical and irreverent portrait of Scottish life, literature, and politics in the 1930s. Nothing is sacred and no-one is spared. Introduced by Douglas Gifford.
