

Love is a Seed

When it comes to love it is like a seed that you plant. The fate of that seed is up to you. You can nurture that seed, feed it, and care for it, and it will blossom and grow. Or you can ignore that seed, starve it, and neglect it, and it will wilt and die. Love is the same way. What you get out of love is what you put into it. So will you let your seed grow or die? Love is a Seed can help you to grow your seed of love with plenty of romantic tips as well as poems and writings about love.
