

Weekday Cafes: A collection of poetry

Weekday Cafes is the first published collection of poetry by Australian poet Todd Everingham. This collection showcases poems from a range of styles although the overall theme is of a romantic nature. The following extract from Irrelevant Poet(ic) provides an example of some of the playfulness found in this collection: Hear ye! Hear ye! Rise from your morning snore to greet me. Come out from closed doors just to see me - the master of enchantment. The irrelevant poetic. Hey there, you, Ill be your hoop-la! Your savant second son, your galah! Hear ye! Hear ye! Come to me vestal virgin, Ill anoint thee. I never guessed you'd be so saucy. But Im that emperor in bed, bare and pathetic. Rather irrelevant poetic.
