

A Spring in the Desert

A Spring in the Desert is a collection of poetry written by Poet, Playwright Angel Wood. The pieces in this collection deal with the evolution of the soul, acknowledging that we are at once human and divine; A Spring in the Desert speaks to the struggle that this dichotomy at times presents. It is a soul to soul conversation that has waited too long to be had. The pages of A Spring in the Desert, Angel Woods first book, are filled with the truth that we would speak if only we had the words. A Spring in the Desert is relatable, eloquent, sometimes tragic, yet enduringly triumphant. In A Spring in the Desert Angel immortalizes those that she has loved and the ones that have been lost; the many souls that she has encountered along the way. Each piece, like a snapshot, captures a moment in time.
