

The Accidental Poet: Poems of Ross Dix-Peek

From a mothers love to societal hypocrisy, The Accidental Poet: Poems of Ross Dix-Peek is a book of poetry that reflect the authors worldview as a White African. Eclectic and sometimes dark in nature, each poem will inspire you as you apply each beautiful message to your own life. Ross Dix-Peek was born in Salisbury, Rhodesia (now Harare, Zimbabwe), in July 1970 and subsequently grew up and was educated in South Africa, matriculating at the Hill College in Port Elizabeth. A fifth-generation Southern African (of British and Dutch descent), he now resides in Swords, Dublin, Ireland. He came late to poetry and his other interests include sport, history and military history, the English language and writing.
