

The Sky Trapeze

How would you like to fly? To levitate without wings by the power of your mind alone. Hundreds of light years from Earth, a gigantic fraud is practiced on a race of potential Psis. Stimulated to develop only their power to levitate, the remainder of their psi capacities are suppressed - and the object of the Game is Death. Death for all those who begin to suspect, or who have the temerity to develop a greater potential than their masters. Picture a land penned in by fantastic, seventy-mile-high mountains to the North, and ringed on three sides by a sea festering with monstrous mutations. The game is on. A game that needs a miracle to win.
