

The Starlings Song

In a similar vein as her award-winning The Weight of Snow, Bruce's newest collection of poetry explores the themes of love, loss, and nature, both human and not. Written in its entirety during a twenty-eight day stay in a remote cabin in the forests of Northern California, B. L. Bruce's chapbook, The Starlings Song, affirms and renews the author's proclaimed lyricism in thirty-five new poems.
