

Pulse: Prose Poems

Pulse is the second anthology of prose poems from the Prose Poetry Project, a group of over twenty poets from across Australia and the UK who collaborate on writing this most undecidable of forms. This anthology features two long sequences of prose poems, selected to resonate images, themes, ideas and connections. What develops is an immersive, multi-vocal reading experience that speaks to not only the collaborative nature of the project but to prose poetry's capacity to surprise and delight.
