

Beautiful Dreamer A One-Act Comedy of Biblical Proportions

Beautiful Dreamer is a comic telling of Joseph's story in Genesis 37-45. Which is to say it's a comic telling of a comic tale (with menacing undertones of kidnapping, murder and famine). Joseph and The Narrator are featured. Joseph deserves a colorful robe, or perhaps a letter jacket. Eleven supporting roles are: Jacob, Reuben, Levi, Simeon, Judah, Potiphar, Potiphar's Wife, Pharaoh's Baker and Cupbearer, Pharaoh and Joseph's Steward. Gender is of no concern here; have fun with it. The Chorus makes it easy to use as many players as you like with all the supporting characters stepping out to deliver their lines. For longer solo lines (e.g. Potiphar's Wife, Judah's big finish), have the performer step well away from the Chorus. Choir robes are a nice touch. Players in multiple roles might change hats, glasses perhaps a feather boa for Potiphar's wife. Make up your own tune for Joseph's Lament on page 5 (and reprised on page 11). Done right, it's a show-stopper.
